

The European Advantage Who is Who?

This sheet will be your personal page of the famous “Who is Who” in European NGOs working with transport. Its aim is to provide a collection of the relevant personal data to facilitate networking at and especially after the conference. We believe it is much easier to get and stay in touch, if we all have a book like this and we hope you agree 😊

Address (where you can reach me): BUND, Am Köllnischen Park 1, 10179 Berlin, Germany

My organisation is: BUND /Friends of the Earth Germany and stands for: mainly volunteer work for nature Conservation, the protection of the Environment and global justice.

Transport issues I am working on: European Infrastructure Investment Policy and sustainable freight transport

Other transport issues I am interested in: Car-oriented lifestyles, Urban transport planning

Why I decided to come here: As NGOs we don't have many resources but what we do have are a lot of committed people, so I think it is essential that we talk more about our strategies and what has and hasn't worked for some of us in the past when targeting conventional transport policy.
